

CHÂTEAU ÉLAN WINERY & RESORT

Braselton, Georgia, USA

On 3,500 breathtaking acres in the foothills of Georgia's northeast mountains just north of Atlanta, the four-diamond Château Élan Winery & Resort is a luxury resort destination featuring a full-production winery and lush vineyard. Anchored by a 16th century-style French chateau, the impressive resort presents daily winery tours and tastings, luxurious accommodations, world-class amenities, fine dining, an upscale spa, championship golf and extensive meeting and event facilities.

Hotel Facilities

Fresh from a multi-million dollar renovation, Château Élan's Inn offers 320 deluxe guests rooms and suites. The fashionable accommodations sport an updated and contemporary take on French provincial design, inspired by the architectural and interior styles of a French countryside estate.

French blues meld with soft shades that are evocative of the sun-drenched Mediterranean; bed linens are delicately embroidered and dark rich walnut woods complement silver patina accents in the furnishings. In the guest bedrooms, freestanding beds are a dramatic focal point and present rich headboards and footboards. Gilded antique Eglomise full-length mirrors complete the sumptuous spaces.

Additional luxe en-suite appointments include spacious bathrooms with oversized tubs, mini fridges, hair dryers, plush bathrobes and gourmet coffee makers. High-tech features also proliferate, including work desks with data and voicemail, high-speed wireless

Internet access, laptop safes, iPod-docking alarm clock radios and flat-screen televisions. Energy-efficient light is featured in all guest rooms and suites and reflects the resort's commitment to the environment.

Extensive indulgence continues throughout the resort. Gleaming from the recent rejuvenation, The Spa at Château Élan showcases 35,000 square feet of sumptuous health and wellness. The new spa presents 35 upgraded treatment rooms, relaxation areas with views of the lake and customized couples' rooms equipped with massage tables, Jacuzzi tubs and therapeutic showers. A calming refuge of sophisticated relaxation, the European-style spa features a serene palette of watery blues and greens, inspired glass mosaics and elegant bronzed metals. Guests wishing to extend their bliss can dine at the spa's Fleur de Lis restaurant or stay in 14 themed overnight spa suites.

Golfers will discover a similar oasis. Acclaimed as one of the best collections of golf offered in the South, Château Élan tenders 63 championship holes. Guests can partake of the nine-hole executive walking course, a three-hole short game course, the par-71 Château course with its emerald contoured fairways, the stunning 18-hole Woodlands championship course affording memorable views of the sparkling lakes, and the acclaimed Legends course designed by Gene Sarazen, Sam Snead and Kathy Whitworth.

The destination resort's other lavish amenities include a premiere equestrian show center, Stan Smith Tennis Center, art gallery and 25,000-square-foot conference center with ballrooms, boardrooms and a tiered auditorium. Work and play are expertly catered to in equal measure at Château Élan.

Wining and Dining

Wine is the spectacular star at Château Élan, having garnered more than 300 international awards in the last several decades. Besides year-round winery tours and tastings, guests can experience the estate's annual Vineyard Fest during harvest season. The delectable celebration of food and wine draws participating fine wineries from around the world.

Seven distinctive gourmet restaurants serve as the perfect complement to Château Élan's prized vintages. Inspired by the former Quai d'Orsay railway station and adjacent Belle Epoque dining room in Paris, the open-air Versailles chichly serves metropolitan Parisian cuisine underneath a striking 45-foot glass atrium. For a more intimate affair, Le Clos serves multi-course meals expertly paired with Château Élan's finest estate bottled wines in a romantic courtyard setting.

Mediterranean dishes are the spotlight at the cosmopolitan Café Élan, while the lively Paddy's Irish Pub recreates an authentic Dublin experience. The restaurant was built in Ireland and reconstructed at the resort with all of its fixtures and furnishings. More casual fare, snacks and refreshments are served at the Golf Clubhouse Grille and L'Auberge wine and sports bar.

Aspiring chefs can test out their chops at the resort's Culinary Studio and Cooking School. Using top-tier kitchen appliances, Château Élan's exceptional team of chefs offers recreational and corporate interactive epicurean classes.

Out and About

Picturesquely set on acres of vineyard, Château Élan is a world-class destination resort offering exquisite fine dining, top-notch amenities and opulent guest accommodations. The resort is conveniently located just 40 minutes from downtown Atlanta and an hour from Hartsfield-Jackson international airport, presenting guests with efficient access to the region's riches.
